Property Description

Welcome to your sunny escape. This bright, corner apartment feels like a true retreat, where you can wake up to panoramic views stretching from the sea to the mountains from your generous terrace. It's the kind of space that makes you want to pour a morning coffee and just soak it all in.

And let's talk about location. La Cala is a special spot, known for its world-class golf, but also for its fantastic spa, restaurants, and that gorgeous Andalusian countryside. You feel a world away from the hustle, yet you're only a short drive from the beach, the buzz of Marbella, or the airport. It's the best of both worlds, right at your doorstep

Inside, the space just flows. Sunlight pours in through huge windows, making the open living area feel incredibly warm and inviting. You can cook in the modern kitchen without missing a moment with friends or family, and then step right out onto the terrace to dine al fresco. It really feels like indoor and outdoor living become one.

You'll find three comfortable bedrooms, each with plenty of storage, and two bathrooms with refreshing walk-in showers.

We've also thought of the practical stuff, so you can relax. It's built to be efficient and comfortable year-round with quiet climate control, and it even has solar panels for hot water. Plus, you'll have your own parking space underground and a handy storage room.

Outside your door, the community gardens and pool are your own tranquil oasis—perfect for a lazy afternoon with a book.

Whether you're dreaming of a holiday home where you can truly switch off, or a savvy investment that guests will love, this property has that special something.
