Beschreibung der Immobilie

Situated within the exclusive gated community of Los Jardines de las Fuentes, this beautifully renovated residence presents a rare opportunity to acquire a turnkey home in one of Marbella's most desirable beachside locations. Directly instructed by the owner, we are delighted to offer what is undoubtedly one of the finest apartments currently available within this charming boutique development.

Set within a peaceful community of just 38 apartments, the property enjoys a highly sought-after end position, offering a level of privacy rarely found so close to the beach. Overlooking a protected natural area rather than neighbouring buildings, it benefits from open green views, abundant natural light, and a tranquil atmosphere free from the noise and bustle often associated with coastal living.

Completely transformed through an extensive renovation carried out to the highest standards, the apartment has been meticulously redesigned to combine timeless elegance with modern functionality.
