Beschreibung der Immobilie

Hidden within the historic streets of central Málaga, this remarkable courtyard house captures a way of living that has shaped Mediterranean homes for centuries. From the moment you enter, the house reveals its character: a generous open-air patio framed by elegant stone columns and wooden beams, where sunlight pours in from above and the atmosphere feels peaceful and timeless. Homes organised around a central courtyard have been part of Mediterranean life since antiquity, from the Roman domus to the patio houses of Andalusia. The property offers 416 m<sup>2</sup> distributed across three levels organised around the central patio. The ground floor,
