Beschreibung der Immobilie

Welcome to this exceptional home in the highly sought-after community of Las Bóvedas, enjoying an enviable frontline beach location in Guadalmina Baja. Properties this close to the sea rarely come to market, making this a truly special opportunity in one of Marbella's most desirable beachside settings. Although situated within a community, the property is completely freestanding and occupies its own private plot of just over 400 m², offering a wonderful sense of privacy and independence. The house is exceptionally spacious and full of character, beautifully structured ceiling details and a magnificent fireplace creating an elegant yet warm and welcoming atmosphere throughout. A beautiful covered entrance welcomes you into an impressive hallway, where a grand staircase forms a striking centrepiece of the home. On the ground floor, the generous family kitchen offers plenty of space for both cooking and informal dining, with a large dining table and terrace doors opening directly onto
